

ANNUAL GENDER SENSITIZATION PLAN

FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022 TO 2023

Month	Topic/Plan	Objectives	Method of delivery
January	Understanding Gender Identity	To explore the concept of gender identity beyond the binary and understanding the experiences of transgender and non-binary individuals	Observance Of National Girl Child Day, 2023 by NSS Unit and Women Development Cell Date: 23 rd January, 2023
February	Gender and Education	To examine the impact of language on gender representation and promoting gender inclusive language usage	Observance of International Day of Women and Girls in Science Date: 10th February, 2023
March	Breaking gender Stereotypes	To challenge and deconstruct gender stereotypes that perpetuate harmful expectations and limitations	Awareness in Cocurricular Activities Period
August	Gender Based violence	To explore how education can play a role in promoting gender equality and challenging biased educational practices	Gender Equity Programme Vis a Vis Women Empowerment Organised by Department of Education and Women Cell Date: 25th August, 2022
September	Role of Men in Gender Equality	To encourage men to be active allies in the pursuit of gender equality and challenging harmful masculinity norms	Awareness in Cocurricular Activities Period
October	Embracing Diversity, Celebrating Individuality	To address body image issues and promoting body positivity across genders	Observance of International Girl Child Day By NSS Unit, Red Ribbon Club & Women Development Cell Date: 11 th October, 2022